The Association of social promotion TRAlEVLTE is pleased to invite you on Saturday, January 25, 2025 at 6:00 pm to the exhibition entitled New Humanity, curated by Maila Buglioni at the Moving Poets Novilla in Berlin.

New Humanity, in line with the objectives of the COMMON GROUND project, was conceived as a "choral" exhibition, i.e. as the expression of a single body, of a single forma mentis declined by the sensitivity of each individual artist under 35 selected by the curator. The ultimate aim of the exhibition is to focus attention on the urgencies that currently exist in the contemporary world, giving rise to a powerful message where the human being is at the centre of a "New Humanity", a theme that subtly connects the individual works proposed by the seven artists. Each artist has narrated, through the expressive practice that best represents him or her, his or her own story and the suggestions aroused by today's world. The evolution of sensations and emotions generated by the evocative exhibition spaces have shown the artists the way to propose works of high ethical-social content, elaborating a final cross-section of great impact and morality. A sui generis exhibition itinerary illustrating the journey of the human being and the thousand vicissitudes that daily and unexpectedly arise.

The seven under-35 artists involved are Tatiana Balchesini, Lorenzo Cappella, Emanuele Dragone, Giulia Iosco, Niccolò Figure, Davide Viggiano and Sara Zanin.

The COMMON GROUND project, from an idea of A-Wibaa, aims to professionalise the 7 young artists under 35 through a path of tutoring and support by means of tools for their growth and the possibility of experimenting with new technologies to observe what lies within the metaverse.

The project, including the exhibition, is funded by the Lazio Region in the context of the public notice “Lazio Contemporaneo 2022” referred to the Executive Determination 11 ottobre 2022, n. G13739.
